Policy Guidelines on Anti-trust/Anti-Competitive Practices

- In today’s marketplace, competitors interact in many ways, through trade associations, professional groups, joint ventures, standard setting organizations, and other industry groups. ATL encourages such dealings, provided they are fair, ethical and transparent in nature.
- Encourage the development and operation of competitive open markets and the liberalization of trade and investment in each country and market in which ATL operates.
- Refrain from exchanging information with competitors on individualized intentions concerning future conduct regarding prices, quantities or other elements of competitive behaviour.
- Avoid entering into any activity constituting anti-competitive behaviour such as abuse of market dominance, collusion, participation in cartels or inappropriate exchange of information with competitors.
- All employees must be aware of antitrust risks in their interactions with competitors and must maintain caution at all the times during their dealings with competitors.
- Competitive information and/or intelligence, must only be collected through legal and ethical means such as published news, press releases, information available in the public domain, etc.
- ATL shall not, under any circumstances, engage in Price Fixing with any competitor(s) or supplier(s). ATL will establish prices and other terms on its own, without agreeing with a competitor(s). Price Fixing does not relate only to prices, but also to other terms that affect prices to consumers and therefore, employees should not disclose any such information to the competitors.

- While entering mergers, ATL shall ensure that all requirements of Anti-trust and Competition laws are fully complied. Also, ATL shall make necessary disclosures as mandated by applicable laws and regulatory authorities while entering mergers.
- While dealing with the competitors never agree to set prices or allocate regions or product markets or customers nor engage in bid rigging and refrain from exchanging any such confidential, price sensitive and commercially sensitive information.
- Not take up or involve in any activities competing with the business of the Company.
- If any unauthorized or confidential information is received about/from a competitor, we must not use this information and notify the Legal Department / Compliance Officer immediately.
